C. Violation of Law and College Discipline

College disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Student Code of Conduct (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under this Student Code of Conduct may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off campus at the discretion of the respective campus. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under this Student Code of Conduct shall not be subject to change because criminal charges arising out of the same facts giving rise to violation of college rules were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the criminal law defendant.

ARTICLE III: STUDENT CONDUCT CODE PROCEDURES

A. Investigation and Informal Process
   1. Any member of the college community may file a written complaint alleging that a student or student organization has violated student conduct proscriptions. Any complaint should be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place. Persons filing complaints shall be informed of their rights under the Minnesota Data Practices Act and shall be provided with information about the process and the anticipated timeline of the investigation. Following the filing of a complaint against a student or student organization, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee shall conduct an investigation of the allegations.

   2. If the complaint seems unwarranted, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee may discontinue proceedings.

   3. If there is sufficient evidence to support the complaint, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee shall offer the accused student an opportunity to resolve the alleged violation at an informal meeting. Prior to this meeting, the student shall be given a written notice of the specific complaint against him/her and the nature of the evidence available to support the complaint and provided with a copy of the code of conduct. During the meetings the Dean of Student Affairs or designee shall review the complaint and the evidence with the student and allow the student to present a defense against the complaint. Within a reasonable time period following the meeting, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee shall inform the accused student in writing of his/her decision whether a violation of the code was established by a preponderance of evidence and any applicable sanction as well as options available for an appeal and/or a formal hearing. The complainant shall receive notification consistent with state and federal privacy laws.
4. A student who is subject to a sanction of expulsion or suspension, except summary suspension, for more than nine (9) calendar days may agree to accept the sanction, or may request a formal hearing. The formal hearing should be held within a reasonable time. Other sanctions shall be accepted or may be appealed in accordance with the college’s appeal procedures listed below in Part E and F.

5. If the accused student fails to appear for the informal meeting, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee may proceed to review and act upon the complaint in his/her absence and shall notify the student in writing of an action taken.

6. A sanction shall not become effective during the time in which a student seeks an appeal or formal hearing, unless, in the discretion of the Dean of Student Affairs or designee, it is necessary to implement an immediate sanction for the safety and welfare of the college community.

B. Formal Hearing.

1. The composition of the student conduct panel will normally be two (2) faculty, two (2) students, two (2) staff members and one (1) administrator or designee. The administrator will serve as a non-voting chairperson. Students serving on the student conduct panel shall be elected by the student body or appointed by the campus student association. Student conduct panel hearings shall be conducted by a student conduct panel according to the following guidelines:

a. Student conduct panel hearings normally shall be conducted in private.

b. Students or organizations referred for a formal hearing shall be given adequate advance notice in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing. Failure to appear at the hearing shall not prevent the hearing from proceeding as scheduled.

c. Within a reasonable time prior to the hearing, the student must be informed in writing of: a) the complaint; b) the evidence to be presented against him/her; c) a list of witnesses; and d) the nature of their testimony.

d. In hearings involving more than one accused student or organization, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee, in his or her discretion, may permit the hearing concerning each student to be conducted either separately or jointly.

e. The student shall be given the opportunity to speak in his/her own defense, to present witnesses and to question any witnesses and to have an advocate present. The advocate may provide advice to the student, but may not participate in any questioning. When there is a likelihood that a student involved in conduct proceedings will face criminal prosecution for a serious offense, it may be advisable that the student have an attorney as the advocate.

f. A written notice of findings and conclusions shall be provided to the accused student within a reasonable time after the hearing. The notice shall inform the student of any sanction to be imposed. The notice shall also contain information regarding the applicable appeal process listed below in Part E and F.

g. The hearing may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the complainant, accused student, and/or other witness during the hearing by providing for the presence of law enforcement and/or security, separate facilities, by using a visual screen, and/or by permitting participation by telephone, videophone, closed circuit television, video conferencing, videotape, audio tape, written statement, or other means, where and as determined in the sole judgment of the Dean of Student Affairs or designee to be appropriate.

C. Sanctions

1. The following sanctions may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct:
   a. Warning - A notice in writing to the student that the student is violating or has violated institutional regulations.
   b. Probation - A written reprimand for violation of specified regulations. Probation is for a designated period of time and includes the probability of more severe disciplinary sanctions if the student is found to violate any institutional regulation(s) during the probationary period. The college may impose specific written conditions for the probation.
   c. Loss of Privileges - Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.
   d. Restitution - Compensation for loss, damage, or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
   e. Discretionary Sanctions - Work assignments, essays, service to the college, or other related discretionary assignments.
   f. Suspension - Denial of the privilege of enrollment for a specified period of time after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for re-enrollment may be specified.
   g. Expulsion - Permanent denial of the privilege of enrollment at the college.
   h. Revocation of Admission and/or Degree - Admission to or a degree awarded from the college may be revoked for fraud, misrepresentation, or other violation of college standards in obtaining the degree, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.
   i. Withholding Degree - The college may withhold awarding a degree otherwise earned until the completion of the process set forth in this student code of conduct, including the completion of all sanctions imposed, if any.

More than one of the sanctions listed above may be imposed for any single violation. Notations of suspensions and expulsions shall be posted on transcripts in accordance with System Procedure 3.29.1.

2. The following sanctions may be imposed upon groups or organizations:
   a. Those sanctions listed above;
   b. Loss of selected rights and privileges for a specified period of time;
   c. Deactivation. Loss of all privileges, including college recognition, for a specified period of time.

D. Summary Suspension.

In certain circumstances, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee may impose a summary suspension prior to the informal or formal proceedings described in the previous articles. A summary suspension may be imposed only when, in the judgment of the Dean of Student Affairs or designee, the accused student’s presence on the college campus would constitute a threat to the safety and well-being of members of the campus community. To the greatest extent possible before implementing the summary suspension, the accused student shall be given oral or written notice of the intent to impose summary suspension and shall be given an opportunity to present oral or written arguments against the imposition of the suspension. However, the refusal of a student to accept or acknowledge this notice shall not prevent the implementation of a summary suspension. Notice of the summary suspension shall be provided in writing to the student. After the student has been summarily suspended, the student shall be provided an opportunity for a formal or informal hearing within the shortest reasonable time period, not to exceed nine (9) calendar days. During the summary suspension, the student may not enter the campus without obtaining prior permission from the Dean of Student Affairs or designee.

E. Appeals

1. A decision reached by the student conduct panel or a sanction imposed by the Dean of Student Affairs or designee may be appealed by the accused student(s) or complainant(s) to the Chief Academic Officer (CAO) within five (5) business days of the notification of the decision. Such appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Chief Academic Officer (CAO).

2. Except as required to explain the basis of new information, an appeal shall be limited to a review for one or more of the following purposes:
   a. To determine whether the informal or formal hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and information presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the complaining party a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present information that the Student Code of Conduct was violated, and giving the accused student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a response to those allegations. Deviations from designated procedures will not be a basis for sustaining an appeal unless significant prejudice results.
   b. To determine whether the decision reached regarding the accused student was based on substantial information, that is, whether there were facts in the case that, if believed by the investigator, were sufficient to establish that a violation of the Student Code of Conduct occurred.
   c. To determine whether the sanction(s) imposed were appropriate for the violation of the Student Code of Conduct which the student was found to have committed.
   d. To consider new information, sufficient to alter a decision, or other relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such information and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the original informal or formal hearing.

3. If an appeal is upheld by the Chief Academic Officer (CAO), the CAO may take any appropriate action. If an appeal is not upheld, the matter shall be considered final and binding upon all involved except that in cases involving sanctions of suspension for more than nine (9) calendar days, students shall be informed of their right to a contested case hearing under Minnesota State Statute 14.

F. Contested Case Hearings

If a suspension for more than nine (9) calendar days or an expulsion is determined, the student has a right to appeal the decision before an administrative law judge pursuant to Minnesota State Statute Chapter 14. A student seeking a hearing before an administrative law judge must inform the campus Dean of Students or designee within five (5) business days of receiving notice of the decision. The College will request a hearing from the Office of Administrative Hearings only if the student requests a contested case hearing. The student will be notified of the time, place and date of the hearing.

The hearing will be conducted pursuant to Contested Case Procedures adopted by the Office of Administrative Hearings. An administrative law judge will be appointed by the Chief Administrative Law Judge pursuant to Minnesota State Statute section 14.50. Following the hearing, the administrative law judge shall make a report, which contains a recommendation, to the College President.
Within a reasonable time period following receipt of the administrative law judge’s recommendation, the College President shall make a decision. The President’s decision shall be final.
