PRESENTED BY
NORTHLAND STATE JUNIOR COLLEGE
JUNE 12, 1970

Northland State Junior College was established in August 1965 as Thief River Falls State Junior College. Facilities were leased from Thief River Falls Lincoln High School and the City of Thief River Falls. In the fall of 1965, the City of Thief River Falls purchased a campus site for the new college buildings to be completed for the fall of 1969. Through each year Northland State Junior College has grown in faculty and facilities to "Build Today For Tomorrow."

Northmen Top Area All-Stars

The Northmen rolled to an easy 98-58 win over the Area All-Stars November 17 in the Lincoln high school gym.

Utilizing a fast break and a superb shooting performance The Northmen proved to be too much for the All Stars.

Coach Al Adams started three sophomores—Nick Neibauei Van Swanson, and Dwight Jaros and two freshmen, Ron Visness and Conrad Lubarski.

After building a 31-14 lead midway through the first period Coach Adams started using substitutes freely. By halftime the Northmen mounted to a 50-29 advantage.

Scott Rousseau, a freshman came off the bench to lead scorers with 23 points, followed by Van Swanson's 18 and Ostby's 12.

Leading the All-Stars was Habstrick with 14 and D Bakke

NSJC Hockey Team Off To Good Start

The Northland intramural hockey team has started this season with a record of one win and one loss, beating Bridgemans 10-6 in the first game and losing to Norrens 8-6 in the second game.

The hockey team consists of fourteen junior college students and two high school students. The team is under the management of Delbert Schulz and is coached by Greg Radniecki.

The team was started by the hockey players and the players supply their own equipment and practice on their own time. Northland donated $15,000 entrance fees for each player.

One of the strings of players consists of: Tim Carlson and Mike Schmitz, wings; Donn Haugen, center; Larry Skime and Jim Murphy, defense; and Scott Dowers, goalie. The other string consist of: Bernard Demarias and Mark Froehle, wings; Tom Hunt, center; John Helquist and Gordon Marshall, and John Pream, goalie.

Paul

The Crookston club trailed 45 at the break, but 38 points from Dan Motschenbacher make up the difference. Loyd Mays followed with 22.

Ron Ostby led Northland with 21 and Ron Visness tossed in 19. Northland, now 4-9, closes out this season here Friday hosting Hibbing Junior College.

Minnesota Tech is now 9-3 on campaign.

Injuries Cause Matmen to Fall From First

Injuries and inelligibility dropped the Northland wrestlers from first place in conference play. After two impressive wins against Hibbing and Brainerd, the Northmen were going to be counted on to be contenders during the year in conference play. Dan Carpenter, who won his two conference matches by pins, injured his knee and will be out for an indefinite period. Bruce Norzen, who pinned his man in the Brainerd match and bowed in the opening contest, transferred, to Florida. Dave Rodahl decided his participation in the Brainerd match and is out for the rest of the season with a dislocated elbow suffered in the UND Invitational.

Coach Adams Views Year With Optimism

Northland's first basketball practice was called for Monday, Oct. 20, with fifteen candidates reporting for practice. Six Northmen are returning lettermen and are as follows: Nick Neibauei, Mental Newfolden; Van Swanson, Newfolden; Clyde Sorenson, Newfolden; Dwight Jaros, Warroad; Roger Cardinal, Red Lake Falls; Stephen Erskine. There is one transfer, Ron Ostby (Mayville College), Erskine. The freshmen are Conrad Lubarski, Argyle; Jarrell Peterson, Argyle; Scott Rousseau, East Grand Forks; Steven Haaven, McIntosh; Ron Visness, Kennedy; Brian Bennes, McIntosh; Alan Anton, Thief River Falls; and David Sethre, Newfolden.

The Northmen are going to be a contender in the conference this year. Last year Northland tied for fifth place in the eight-team Northern Junior College Conference. The squad will play two nonconference collegiate games in a junior college tournament before its first conference game on December 6.

WHO'S WHO

These students were included in the 1969-70 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN JUNIOR COLLEGES, a listing of the campus leaders from more than 600 of the nation's institutions of higher learning.

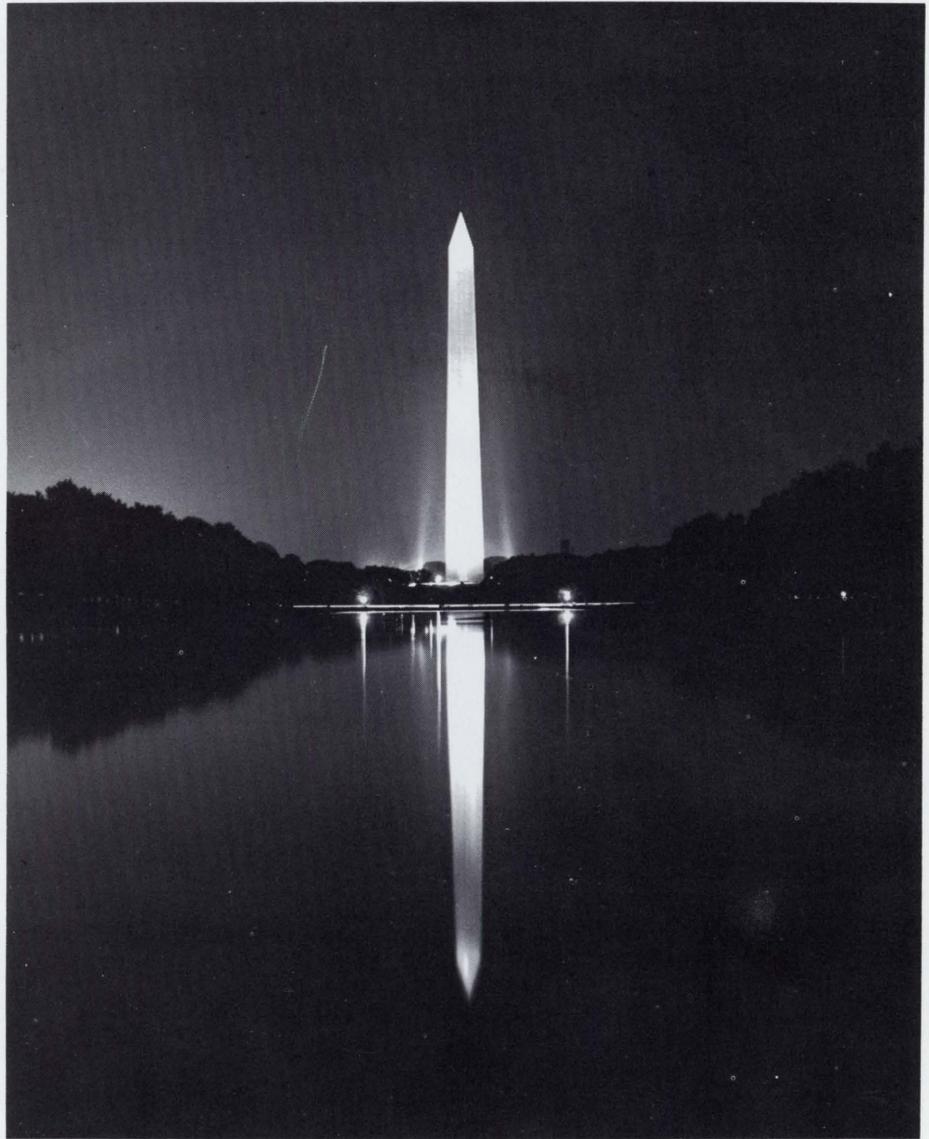

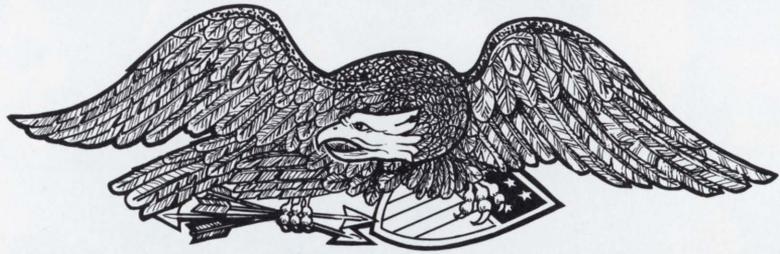

The annual directory of distinguished students has been published since 1966 and carries only the names of students whose academic standing, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential are decidedly above average.

DRAMA

ANTIGONE

Anouilh's adaptation of the ancient Greek "Antigone" involves two sons and two daughters of King Oedipus, late king of Thebes, and his brother-in-law, Creon, who has become king. The two brothers have had a civil war and have killed each other, and Creon, full of righteousness and edicts, has ordained that one of the brothers, Poly-nices, be left unburied--carrion for dogs and vultures. Antigone, his sister, defies the edict, heaps earth upon the dishonored corpse.

"That grey-haired, powerfully built man."

THE AMERICAN DREAM

The American Dream, a satire, is classified as a comedy of the absurd, with the characters and their situations being not at all realistic, yet not purely illusory. The play examines life on the American scene while satirically attacking our substitution of artificial values for real values.

THE CAST

THE SWEETHEART

"The Sweetheart Tree" was the exotic theme selected by the Freshman class to transform the Multi-Purpose Room at Northland into a setting proper for the gala Spring Prom.

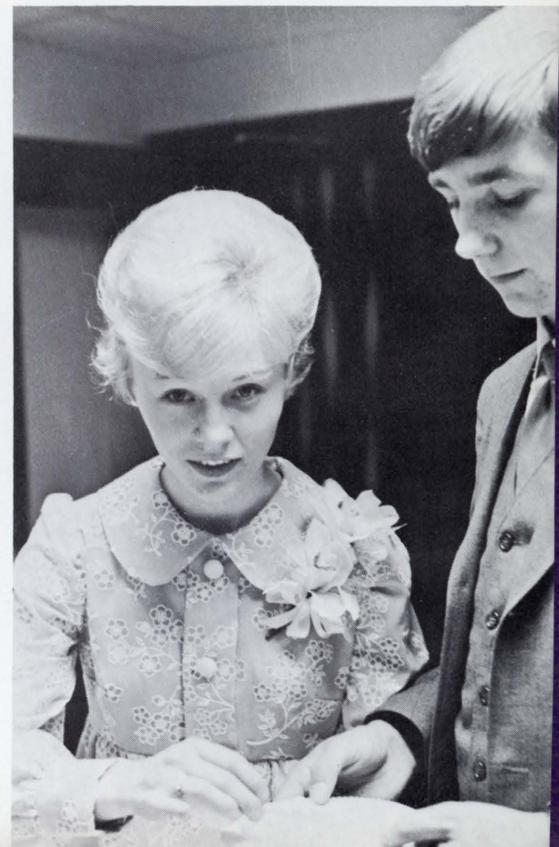

In addition to the appropriate "Sweetheart Tree", mint green and yellow streamers reached upwards and were enhanced with a large silver ball in the center.

Quiet havens of tables with centerpieces of daisies granted moments for rest and conversation to the beautifully dressed couples.
