Indian Awareness Week

NSJC held its first Indian Awareness Week under the direction of John Steidl. Films, panels, art displays, and a convocation emphasized the goal of the week's activities--to learn from Indians, not about them. Guest speakers included Marv Sargent, Paul Schultz, Carol Ann Hart, Roland Randal, Pat Needham, Byron Graves, and Armie Oliver. Northland students participating were Willa Beaulieu, Elfreda Hatlen, Julius Thunder, and Randy Desjarliat.

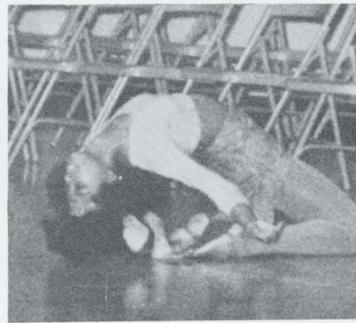

Brother, our seats were once large, and yours were very small; you have now become a great people, and we have scarcely left a place to spread our blankets; you have got our country, but are not satisfied; you want to force your religion upon us.

SNO-FEST Week took place the week of January 29-February 4. Queen Cindi and King Willie were crowned at a convocation on Wednesday morning. The dance on Friday night followed a hockey game with Itasca. Music was provided by "Gravel Road." The week drew to a close Sunday night with skiing at Timberlanes.

"Music Man"

Library scene

Northland State Junior College Music Theater presented its first musical, Meredith Willson's, "The Music Man", under the direction of Leslie Torgerson, music director, Roger Vaughan, drama director, and Edith Herington, choreographer. Leading roles were held by Phil Jorgenson and Janell Ness, along with a large cast and orchestra.

The great success of this production can be attributed to the excellent direction and fine facilities available at Northland's new theater.

Medea is repulsed by Jason's presence.

Medea sends gift to Jason's wife, which consume her in fire

"Medea", a Greek tragedy, was the fall presentation of the NSJC theater. It is a protest against women's status in a man's world. In this age of women's liberation the play is particularly pertinent.

Both freshman and sophomore class officers are elected by popular vote in the fall. To be a candidate ten signatures on a nomination petition are necessary.

The freshmen officers sponsored the spring formal. The sophomore officers planned their graduation. They also sponsored the Snow Festival the week of Jan. 29-Feb. 4. Although the work of the class officers is behind the scenes, their accomplishments are numerous.

Student Association

To be a member of the Student Association this past year meant a great many meetings, heated discussions, and a lot of just plain hard work. The members of the senate got "action on many events." The Student Association met every week and talked about better ways of running the school. Joan Olson, Brenda Matheson, and Kim Murphy attended a convention at Rochester this past year. While the spectacular achievements of the Student Association seems solely concerned with entertainments, it was the slow careful deliberation of the Student Association on student affairs that made it such a valuable organization.

Pictures, copy, layout, and work are only a few of the things needed to produce a yearbook. Holly Bernstrom and Joan Olson were co-editors. None of us could complain of the lack of work. Deadlines were always with us. Mr. Birkeland, our advisor, spent many hours worrying, but somehow things always managed to get done, on time!

Northern Light

This year the Northern Light was published by the students three times a quarter. A lot of hard work goes into the production of each issue which covers all the activities that are part of the college. Included in the paper are such things as features, stories, and a few cartoons. The students of Northland look forward to each new issue of the Northern Light.
