DEFINITIONS:

Class Days are regular instructional days. Test Days are used for final exams or other end-of-term instructional or professional activities. Duty Days are when faculty members engage in duties as assigned by the administration. Faculty Contract (FC) Days are used by faculty for activities necessary for the successful accomplishment of their professional responsibilities. These may be Fixed FC Days (designated on specific days) or Float FC Days (self-scheduled, flexible).

[These definitions are drawn or derived from the MSCF Contract, Articles 2 and 10, and intended to be compatible with standard interpretations of contract definitions as well as the description of faculty work assignments in Article 11.]

NOTES:

Official Course Withdrawal shall be established as the date on which eighty percent (80%) of the instructional days for the course have elapsed.

Classes in Summer Session shall have flexible start dates and shall not exceed 39 consecutive days.
