Determining Whether a Student Has Withdrawn from a Standard- or Nonstandard-Term Program Offered in Modules
Effective July 1, 2021 with Possible Early Implementation

Student has not withdrawn. No action required.

After beginning attendance in at least one course, did the student stop attending or fail to begin attendance in a scheduled course applicable to the student’s Title IV-eligible program of study?

Yes

When the student stopped attending or failed to begin attendance in a scheduled course, was the student currently attending any other course(s) applicable to the student’s Title IV-eligible program of study in the payment period or period of enrollment?

No

Did the student complete all requirements for graduation?

Yes

Did the student successfully complete coursework applicable to the student’s Title IV-eligible program of study in one module or a combination of modules that equals 49% or more of the number of countable days in the payment period or period of enrollment?

Yes

Did the student successfully complete coursework applicable to the student’s Title IV-eligible program of study equal to or greater than what the school considers to be half-time enrollment for the payment period or period of enrollment?

No

Did the student confirm attendance in writing for a course applicable to the student’s Title IV-eligible program of study in a later module in the payment period or period of enrollment that begins no later than 45 calendar days after the end of the module he or she ceased attending?

Yes

Student has not withdrawn. No return of Title IV funds calculation is required unless the student fails to begin attendance in a later module. It may be necessary to recalculate aid per applicable program regulations and school policies.

No

Student has withdrawn. Perform return of Title IV funds calculation. It may be necessary to first recalculate Title IV aid for courses the student never attended, per applicable program regulations.

© 2021 NASFAA

Always Never the Same: What’s New with SAP and R2T4? Webinar 9/29/2021