

NCTC Physical Therapy Assistant Program Frequently Asked Questions

1. How many students are accepted into the PTA Program every year?

18 students are accepted into the PTA Program each year.

2. When does the program start?

A new class of students starts the program every fall semester.

3. How are program admissions decided?

Program admissions are on a first-come, first-serve basis, with the first 18 students who have met all admission requirements receiving entry into the program. There is not an admission deadline.

4. What happens if I am not one of the first 18 students who meet admission requirements?

If a student has met all admission requirements but is not one of the first 18 qualified applicants, they will be placed on the program's alternate list.

5. How does the alternate list work?

If a student gives up their position in the program, the first student on the alternate list would be offered that position. After the beginning of the fall semester, the first 18 students on the alternate list would be guaranteed a position in the next year's class.

6. Are observation hours needed to apply to the program?

Observation hours are no longer needed for PTA Program admission.

7. What is the ATI TEAS?

The ATI TEAS is a computer-based 3.5-hour test that measures skills in academic areas of reading, mathematics, science, and English/language usage. The exam is 209 minutes/170 questions.

8. Where can I take the ATI TEAS?

The ATI TEAS is administered at the East Grand Forks campus of Northland Community and Technical College in the library testing center.

9. What score do I need to receive on the ATI TEAS to be admitted into the PTA Program?

An applicant must score above 60% for the Adjusted Individual Total (AIT) Score after October 1st, 2018. Scores between 58-60% will meet admission requirements for exams taken prior to October 2018.

10. Can I take the ATI TEAS admissions exam more than once?

Yes, a student can take the ATI TEAS a maximum of two times per academic year.

11. Is there a fee for taking the ATI TEAS?

If you are testing at the NCTC Test Center, the fee of $70 is paid on the day of the test, at the test center. Please make sure to bring a credit/debit card the day of your exam.

12. Is there a study guide for the ATI TEAS?
